already existing, that becomes very popular for a period of time. Buzzwords often derive from technical terms yet often have much of the original technical meaning removed through fashionable use, being simply used to impress others; although such "buzzwords" may still have the full meaning when used in certain technical contexts.

looking to lose weight, even though many fat-free products are naturally so: an apple is always, by definition, fat-free. III. Importance of Buzzwords.

Buzzwords are easy and simple ways to impress those who are easily impressed. As long as a buzzword is fresh and popular, it is powerful.
