Durbar Tavleen Singh

Tavleen Singh, the writer of Durbar, emerges as a brave journalist with high contacts and privileged access to high profile drawing rooms and she generously used these capabilities to make the book an interesting chronicle of the time when Indira and Rajeev ruled the country and strengthened the root of dynastic politics.

Durbar by Tavleen Singh - Goodreads

And Durbar by Tavleen Singh falls smack bang into the swirling vortex of innuendo, access and personal score settling that to most casual observers, defines life within the confines of Lutyens' Delhi. Singh has a withering style of prose compared to other, more sedate writers like Pratap Bhanu Mehta or Rajdeep Sardesai, making her the choice of readers seeking salacious details of the power elite in the Capital.
