Hat Trick is book three in the Blades Hockey series by Maria Luis. I loved the first two books in this series. This book is Gwen James and Marshall Hunt's story and to be honest with you, going in, I wondered how in the world these two would work together. They seemed completely ill matched. But, I was wrong. Because they did fit, perfectly.

In field hockey and ice hockey, a hat trick occurs when a player scores three goals in a single game. A hat trick in ice hockey, as it is known in its current form, culminates with fans throwing hats onto the ice from the stands. The tradition is said to have begun among fans in the National Hockey League around the 1950s.

Blades the Bruin serves as the team mascot for the Boston Bruins Since 1999. Blades the Bruin is notable because he is the only known bear who does not hibernate. Blades first took an interest in hockey when watching Johnny Bucyk play pond hockey with groups of neighborhood children. One day, he sneaked in the back of Bucyk's truck and was taken to the Boston Garden where Bucyk fed him pizza ...
