guides the reader
through her youthful adventures at Hever to those on the continent, ultimately concluding
as she leaves French
Court to return to England for her marriage.

The Lady Anne is the second book in the Above All Others series about the life of Anne Boleyn by Gemma Lawrence. The first book, La Petite Boulain, which I also reviewed, concerns the early years of Anne's life, beginning with her happy childhood at Hever Castle in Kent and her education in the courts of France.
