Lady Parts Andrea Martin

Andrea Martin's Lady Parts memoir is a dynamic and quirky slice into the psyche of the comedienne herself. She reveals her Armenian heritage, a brief reminiscence about her complex parents (of which this reader wanted to know more), her neuroses, her mama-bear love for her boys, her performance anxiety, her willingness to face all that scares her, and finally her career on SCTV.

That she is also funny, offbeat and beautiful with her large brown eyes and dark Middle Eastern features, I have always known. But what shines through most in Andrea Martin's Lady Parts is her wonderful warmth and humanity. Whether discussing her difficult relationship with her father, or caring for her roommate and best friend who passed of AIDS, or her childhood friend whom cancer took several years ago, Martin cares deeply about other people, and it is precisely this empathy which helps ...
