As the owner of a bodyguard company, Scanguards, he doesn't pay much attention to the human side of his business, just the vampire side, and conflict arises when he finds out Delilah works for him. I really liked this book. Delilah and Samson are likable characters. She's strong, snarky, and confident in herself.

Scanguards Vampires Series by Tina Folsom - Goodreads

Samson finally pushed her away, humiliated and frustrated. If vampires could blush from embarrassment, his face would have been as red as the vamp's painted lips. Luckily, blushing was reserved for humans. In lightning speed, he shoved his useless male equipment back into his pants and zipped up. Even faster, he fled her company.
