I really think this is still so relatively new that there isn't as much info out there as there is for other art forms. Some people have been Bible journaling for years, but I really believe we've yet to see the full force of the movement. The most important supply that I knew I needed was a journaling Bible. My friend from church had already warned me that they were really hard to get right now (because of the current rise in popularity of this form of artistic expression).
