The White Road Nightrunner 5

The White Road is the fifth Nightrunner novel written by Lynn Flewelling, and it's obvious that the series still has it's magic. I really enjoyed the strong characters, the fast pace, and the romantic elements. One thing I would recommend to readers is to not start the series with The White Road.

Nightrunner Series by Lynn Flewelling - Goodreads

Like Shadows Return, The White Road moves the Nightrunner series along, but in unexpected and interesting ways. This volume again departs from the fantasy intrigue and guile, to a large extent, that drew me into the first three volumes, but does return to an unusual and occasionally light-hearted, if more often poignant, exploration of the ...

The White Road (2010) About book: "Of course all he'd gotten was a stint in slavery, but at least they'd gotten out of the house." If Alec had a resume, it would include the former occupations of hunter/trapper, apprentice bard, thief, spy, lord, honest working man, diplomat with some spying involved, and lastly, "a stint in slavery."
