General Assembly Resolutions | United Nations

A United Nations
General Assembly
Resolution is a decision or declaration voted on by all member states of the United Nations in the General Assembly.
General Assembly
resolutions usually require a simple

majority to pass.

However, if the General Assembly determines that the issue is an "important question" by a simple majority vote, then a two-thirds majority is required; "important questions" are those that deal significantly with the maintenance of international peace and security, admission

Resolution 181,
resolution passed by the United Nations
(UN) General Assembly
in 1947 that called for the partition of Palestine into Arab and Jewish states, with the city of Jerusalem as a corpus separatum (Latin: “separate entity”) to be governed by a special
international regime.
